TO PUNISH MINORS IN SALOONS

Court Holds Municipalities Have Right to Impose Fine.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 29.—Municipalities have a legal right to pass an ordinance providing a fine for minors who visit saloons and dram-shops, according to a decision of the appellate court today. The original case came from Lewistown, where several boys were arrested under the village ordinance. The cases were dismissed in the lower court and the appellate court reverses that decision and remands them for a hearing. The appellate court says that municipalities have a right to enact laws to protect young men who may be enticed into saloons.

People and Pleasant Events

Beautiful Cotillion.

One of the most beautiful dances ever given in Paducah was the Thanksgiving german of the Cotillion club last evening at the Palmer House. The ball room was decorated with plants, and behind a screen of palms the orchestra was stationed. The favors were distributed before the figures by Dr. Victor Voris and Mr. Edwin J. Paxton. Mrs. Victor Voris presided at the table. The favors were especially pretty and most cleverly designed. The credit for them is due to the favor committee of which Mrs. Victor Voris is chairman, and which consists of: Mrs. Voris, Mrs. Henry Rudy, Misses Ethel Brooks, Lillie Mae Winstead, Frances Coleman, Martha Davis, Faith Langstaff, Frances Wallace, and Marie Cobb. The seven figures were: "Our President Sees Things"; "President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving Proclamation and a pair of nose glasses"; "Stationary and Revolving"—boxes of stationary and revolving rattlers; "Her mug and his mug"—hand mirrors and steins; "Lilliputians"—small dolls and dogs; United States mails and Cotillion maces—post cards and mail boxes, the young lady and gentlemen receiving the greatest number of cards in the mail boxes led out in the figure which honor was carried off by Miss Frances Wallace and Mr. Wallace Well; "Mums and Mums"—chrysanthemums and miniature bottles of Mums Extra Dry; "The Latest Thing Out"—tiny lighted candles and night caps. The german was led by Mr. Roy Culley and Miss Mary Boswell and the couples dancing were:

Dr. and Mrs. Victor Voris, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Utterback, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rudy, Mrs. Leslie Samuel, of Bardonia, Ky.; Miss Edith Smith, of Hillsboro, Ohio; Miss Virginia Kinnie, of New York City; Misses Ethel Brooks, Elizabeth Sinnott, Henry Alcott, Marjorie Lovell, Myrtle Greer, Frances Coleman, Rella Colman, Hattie Terrell, Faith Langstaff, Marie Cobb, Minnie Terrell, Allie Cabell, Mary Scott, Katherine Powell, Lillie May Winstead, Frances Wallace, Mary Boswell, Sadie Paxton, Susie Thompson, Martha Davis, Messrs. Generously Remembered.

The Thanksgiving reception at the Home of the Friendless yesterday afternoon was well attended by a large crowd of visitors and the donations received were if anything more generous than ever. Instead of the interest flagging in these annual affairs, it seems to increase with each year. The contributions yesterday included besides the provisions, clothing and furnishings, $46 in money which was nearly double the amount received last Thanksgiving.

The board of lady managers received the guests and served light refreshments. The Home looked most attractive and the 30 small children now in the home were guests of honor who greatly enjoyed the occasion.
